

THE ACADEMIES OF LOUISVILLE

JEFFERSON COUNTY PUBLIC SCHOOLS

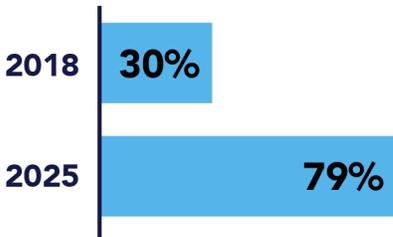

THE ACADEMIES AT WAGGENER High School

Waggener High School is the first school in Kentucky certified by the National Career Academy Coalition (NCAC), offering career-focused pathways and personalized support to prepare students for college and career. Its standout programs include the College NoW initiative, which allows students to earn college credits while still in high school.

SCHOOL DEMOGRAPHICS

Enrollment 951
Multi-Lingual Learners 27%
Free & Reduced Lunch 65%
% 2025 Graduates with Dual Credit 31%
% 2025 Grads w/ Industry Certification..... 63%

POST-SECONDARY READINESS (PSR) AT WAGGENER

FRESHMAN ACADEMY

232 Students

IT & LAW ACADEMY
342 Students

Computer Programming

Pre-Law

Web Design

Teaching and Learning

HEALTH SCIENCE ACADEMY
334 Students

Biomedical Sciences

EKG Tech

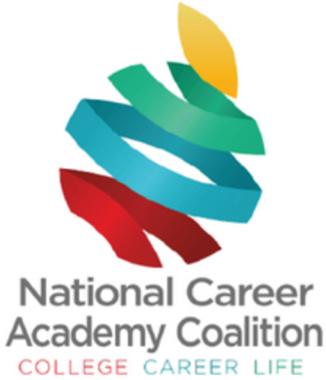

Pre-Nursing

Sports Medicine

"Waggener is a small school that makes it easy to connect with other students. Connecting and communicating with teachers is easier too."

AUNDRAYAH BERRY
Class of 2025

WAGGENER ACADEMIES EARN NATIONAL ACCREDITATION

Waggener High School has become the first school in Kentucky to earn accreditation for its academies from the National Career Academy Coalition, including a "Model with Distinction" status for its Freshman Academy. As of 2025, all three Academies have earned accreditation.

This milestone underscores the Academies of Louisville's commitment to delivering exceptional, career-focused education that prepares students for college and the workforce.

WAGGENER Stories

WAGGENER HIGH SCHOOL SHINES AS NCAC INSIGHT ONSITE HOST

Waggener High School recently hosted the National Career Academy Coalition (NCAC) Insight Onsite visit, showcasing its nationally accredited career academies to educators from across the country. The event highlighted how Waggener's career-focused curriculum, community partnerships, and supportive staff empower students with the skills and experiences they need for success beyond high school.

HUMANA IT4U EMPOWERS WAGGENER STUDENTS WITH REAL-WORLD TECH EXPERIENCE

Waggener High School seniors gained hands-on IT experience at Humana's IT4U help desk, part of a successful partnership through the Academies of Louisville that bridges classroom learning with real-world career opportunities.

READ THESE AND MORE WAGGENER STORIES ON THE ACADEMIES OF LOUISVILLE ALLIANCE BLOG

